March Tempo

The musical score for 'The 400' march is written for a single melodic line on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature has one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 2/4. The score is divided into several systems, each containing musical notation with rhythmic values and drumming patterns indicated by 'L' (left) and 'R' (right) strokes. Dynamic markings such as mf, p, f, and cresc. are used throughout. The score includes various drumming patterns listed in the legend, such as Five Stroke Roll, Seven Stroke Roll, Flam, Flam Paradiddle, FlamaQue, and Nine Stroke Roll. The score is marked with 'March Tempo' and includes a 'TRIO' section. The score is numbered 1 through 25, corresponding to the patterns in the legend. The score is written by Haskell W. Harr.

March Tempo

HASKELL W. HARR

The musical score for 'The Commodore' is written for a single drum line. It begins with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 2/4 time signature. The tempo is marked 'March Tempo'. The score is divided into several systems, each containing musical notation and corresponding drum patterns (R for right, L for left). The drum patterns are often grouped with circled numbers indicating specific techniques: ④, ⑥, ②, ⑪, ③, ⑤, ⑫, ②③, ②②, ②⑤. The score includes dynamic markings such as mf, p, f, and mf. A 'TRIO' section is indicated by a double bar line and the word 'TRIO' in all caps. The score concludes with a double bar line and a final drum pattern. The page number '8' is located at the bottom center.

The Drummer's Melange

The Cadenzas are to be played Ad Lib. by the soloist. Open the rudiment starting the Cadenza, then without stopping start the next rudiment, close slowly until you reach playing tempo, then signal the accompanist and start the following strain. It is not necessary to use the exact number of notes written in the Cadenza, they are written as a suggestion of desired effect.

Mazurka Start very slow gradually increase Speed until playing speed is attained, then signal accompanist and proceed with next movement

The musical score for the Mazurka consists of two staves. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 3/4 time signature. The music is written in a single melodic line. It features several triplet markings (three eighth notes beamed together) and various fingerings indicated by numbers 1-3. The second staff continues the melody, also with triplet markings and fingerings. The tempo instruction at the top reads: "Start very slow gradually increase Speed until playing speed is attained, then signal accompanist and proceed with next movement".
